MEMORANDUM FOR: Director, FBIS

THROUGH : Chief, Operations Group

SUBJECT : Jordan Bureau Monthly Report - April 1982

I. GENERAL

A. The Jordanian Government declared 14 April a non-work day in support of the people on the West Bank. All government and private offices were closed, the airport was closed and all communication with the rest of the world was cut off for the day. Despite the fact that the embassy told all local employees they could take the day off if they chose to do so, all FBIS employees who had been scheduled to work and who were asked if they would come in, agreed to do so. The local situation was quiet; no rallies or demonstrations were reported.

II. OPERATIONS

A. Monitorial/Editorial

1. Effective 18 April the Bureau increased its daily coverage of Manama WAKH in Arabic from 2030 GMT to 2000 GMT until closedown. This was in response to a request from Gulf Bureau so they could change their COB from 2030 GMT to 2000 GMT.

2. On 14 April the first of what will be a monthly filing of Monte Carlo radio program summaries to BBC was begun. This is in response to a BBC consumer's request for increased filing and an occasional program summary from Monte Carlo.

B. Communications

The Bureau technician converted all equipment and circuits from 60 MA to 20 MA on 22 April.

III. ADMINISTRATIVE
